Who is your local hero?

The Community Center is looking for your help to recognize those people and organizations that make a positive difference in our community.

We will be presenting the 4th Annual Community First Awards at our Benefit Breakfast on March 19, 2016. These awards will honor an organization and an individual or family who have provided "for outstanding community service, public service and/or significant charitable or philanthropic contributions of benefit to the community."

Nominations are due to Mark Pursley at the Community Center by February 26, 2016.

Click here for the full criteria and nomination forms or learn more about the Breakfast here.
